Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of Brevard High School, do hereby depart from the customary form prescribed for a will and do in the following manner dispose of those things by which we are known:

Robert Hunter, Class Cut-up, says to the teachers — "I Ain't Misbehaving."

Guyma Stover leaves the good old "Summer-Time" and vacation to all B. H. S. students.

"Cobb" warns David Smith not to be a "Lazybones."

Margaret George leaves the familiar saying "I Got Plenty of Nothing" to the '49 Brevardier Business Manager.

To Pete S. goes Ann's sympathetic "Little Man, You've Had a Busy Day."

Pedney and Bill say "You Gotta Be A Football Hero to Get Along with the Beautiful Girls," "Buck".

Lillian Ann leaves her "Eyes of Irish Blue" to Annie Jo.

Evelyn Houck says to Cecil, "You're Just a Drugstore Cowboy."

Mitchell Jones says to always "Look for the Silver Lining."

Freddie K. and Edgar H. ask Ann Smith and Clarene Wilde, "What Are You Doing New Year's Eve?"

Charles McCrary and Joe McGuire leave "Ten Pretty Girls" to Raymond C. and Alfred W.

James H. says wait 'til "After Graduation Day", Sarah Mull.

Paul P. and Bob R. leave their technique for collecting "A Kiss Goodnight" to Chester Kilpatrick.

Erna H. leaves her "Sweet and Lovely" appeal to Leona Allison.

Next year's Literary Editor receives Carolyn K.'s tired "I'll Never Smile Again."

Ethel B. and Louise H. leave their "Dark Eyes" to Buddy H.

Doris M. reminds Frances P. that "He Is My Sunshine."

Barbara D. reminds Jo Ann P. that "Romance Doesn't Need a Moon in the Sky."

Aileen S. leaves the "Time On My Hands" to those who need it.

Dot Pace leaves her theme song, "The Man I Love," to Mary J. Clarke.

Jeanne reminds anyone who'd like to take her place that "I Wuv a Wabbit."

Frank leaves Wayne K. his theme song, "I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now."

Thelma L. reminds next year's S. C. that in the halls it's "Whispering."

To Bobby Morris go A. J.'s and Joe's "Wine, Women, and Song."

Dot Ann leaves her "Lucky Number" to a superstitious underclassman.

Juanita D. and M. DeBord leave their "Moonlight Mood" to Babs Hall.

Fred McC. and J. O. Brooks leave their ability to "Accentuate the Positive" to Derieux Thomas.

Travis and Bob M. leave "The Angel Song" to Emma Ann S.

"Doog" leaves "The Old Chaperone" to M. J. Newland.

Betty S. warns Foster B., "Milkman, Keep Those Bottles Quiet."

Cecil R. leaves "The One Who Got Away" to Joe Poole.

To "Mitch" goes Bryan's woeful expression, "The Wimmen Won't Let Me Alone."

Ruth Gaines leaves her ability to be "Good, Good, Good" in economics to Dottie Gay.

Tearfully, Albert Bishop bids French II "Au Revoir."

Frances C. leaves "Brownie With the Light Blue Jeans" to Pat Norris.

Christine Link leaves her "Personality" to Mary Alice H.

Claudia and Maxine leave the title "Chatterbox" to Lois H.

To the '49 Editor-in-Chief go Sarah's "Weary Blues."

Dottie P. leaves her "Breathless" giggles to Betsy Brittain.

Jean Enloe and Brona G. leave the "Carolina Moon" to anyone in need of its assistance.

Betty Parrish leaves "Atomic Power" to next year's Chemistry class.

Nell H. leaves a "Sentimental Journey" to Peggy L.

Winston Merrill leaves "Love On a Greyhound Bus" to Sid Wilson.

"Gridley" leaves his typical "What's This?" to Byron Green.

To Ty Morris goes Walter C.'s and Ray G.'s "Take Me Out to the Ball Park."

Jack Bryant leaves his "Smoke Dreams" to Lewis Compton.

Dot Burns leaves the "Stars In Her Eyes" to Betty Wheeler.

Roy Orr leaves "An Apple for the Teacher" to Mrs. Turner.

Mary C. and Martha McK. leave "The Best Man" to Ann Duckworth.

Helen K. and Jean C. leave a "Strawberry Blond" to Bobby K.

Margaret Boyd and Nancy Byrd leave their "Friendship" to B. Sprott and Jo Ann N.

Paul R. and Junior B. are glad to leave "September Song" to Bill Tinsley.

Janie N. and M. Pressley leave "Stormy Weather" with best wishes for "Blues Skies" to Margaret Davis.

Leona H. and Emma Sue S. leave their way of "Pretending" to Bob Loftis.

Johnny E. and William B. leave their ability to get away with "Love Lies" to Juddy.

Wayne F. and Pat H. say "Put the Blame on Mame," boys.

Maisie H. tells Jewell S. that "A Fellow Needs a Girl."

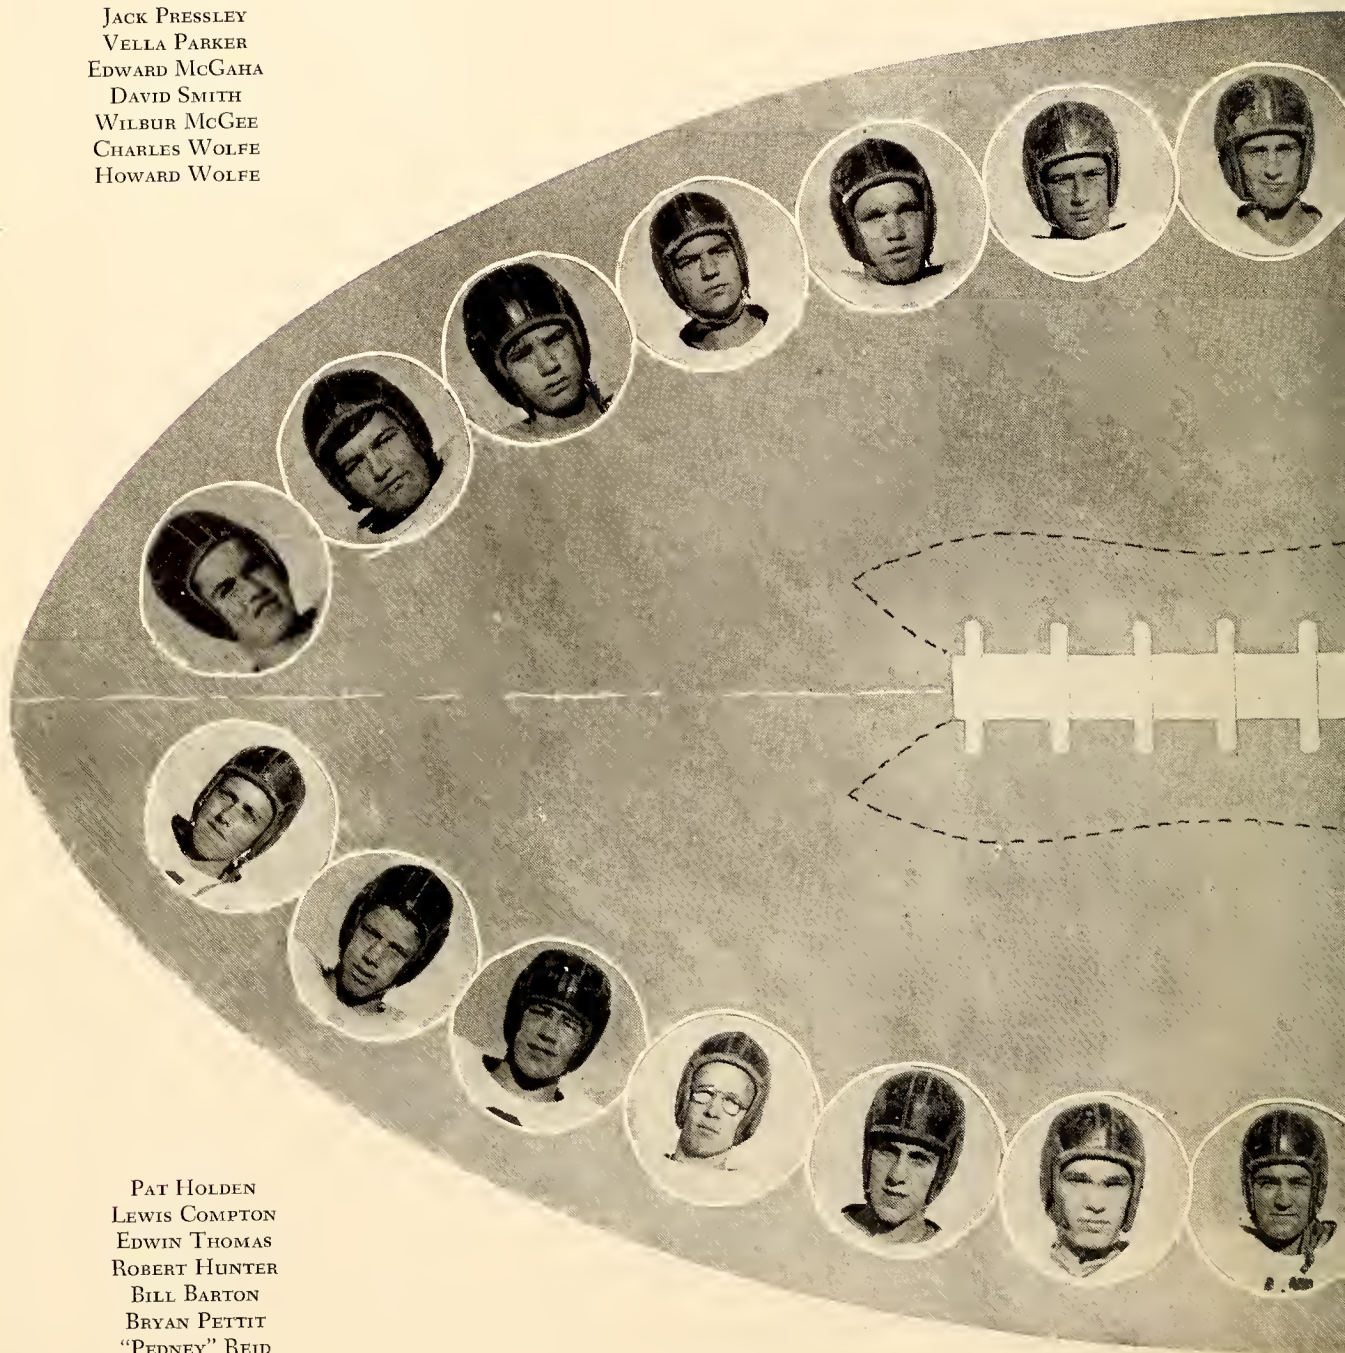

The Senior Class says "Thanks for the Memories," B. H. S.

Season's Record

The Blue Devils of 1947 finished the season with an outstanding record behind them. They were third in the Blue Ridge Conference. Coached by Albert Shuford and Chan Ashworth the Blue Devils had a fine team.

Members of the team were Lewis Compton, Paul Mann, Robert Hunter, Hilton Reid, Pat Holden, Tommy Mitchell, Bill Brittain, Buck Thomas, Howard Wolfe, David Smith, Charles Wolfe, Dusty Erwin, A. J. Monteith, Bobby Patton, Bobby Parris, James Sorrels, Charles Osborne, Vella Parker, Edward McGaha, Paul Lance, Roy Compton, Jack Pressley, Bryan Pettit, Bill Barton, Allan Eberle, James Holden, Wilmer McGee, Bobby Ratchford, and J. D. Perkins. Managers were Bob Reid and Buddy Hollar.

The following is a brief summary of the games: In the first game the Devils overcame a fighting Bryson City team 14 to 7. Barton and Reid scored for Brevard. Bill Barton was captain.

In the next game the powerful Morganton team defeated the Blue Devils 21 to 6. Brevard's touchdown was scored by Barton. Paul Lance was captain.

The following game was played at Waynesville with Brevard losing to the Mountaineers 40 to 13. Reid passed to Pettit for the first tally. Barton bucked the line for the last score. Bryan Pettit was captain.

The next game was a real thriller. The Blue Devils defeated Spruce Pine 7 to 6. Holden scored the touchdown and also kicked the point. Roy Compton was captain.

Next, Brevard defeated Asheville School for Boys for the first time in 11 years, 20 to 14. Reid passed to Holden for the first score. Holden bucked the line for the second, Reid ran 79 yards for the last tally. Allan Eberle was captain.

The Blue Devils fought to a 6 to 6 finish with Christ School. Holden went through the line for Brevard's score. The Devils had many scoring chances during the game but could not push across another score. Paul Mann was captain.

In the next game Brevard defeated their old rival, Hendersonville, 6 to 0. Roy Compton recovered a fumble on Hendersonville's 11 yard line. Reid passed to Holden in the end zone for the score. A Hendersonville back ran a punt back 50 yards for a score but it was nullified because of clipping. James Holden was captain.

The following week the Blue Devils played Bryson City a return game. The score was tied 6 to 6 when the Bryson City team walked off the field, forfeiting to Brevard 1 to 0. The Devils were on Bryson City's 5 yard line when the game ended. Buck Thomas was captain.

In the next game Canton defeated the fighting Blue Devils 26 to 0. Brevard was inside Canton's 10 yard line twice but couldn't score. Holden and Barton turned in nice runs for the Devils. A. J. Monteith was captain.

The final game of the season was played against Swannanoa, champions of Buncombe County. The Blue Devils won 20 to 0. Holden passed to Pettit who ran 40 yards to score. Reid broke loose off tackle and ran 30 yards for the second tally. Shortly before the half Reid passed to Pettit to end the scoring for the game. Swannanoa never threatened. Pat Holden was captain.

This game gave the Blue Devils a record of 6 wins, 3 losses and one tie.

Bill Barton, hard driving fullback, was awarded the Lance trophy for being the outstanding player of the year. James Holden, halfback, was selected to play in the Optimist Bowl in Asheville. These honors were truly deserved.

Power to You, Class of '48

We're proud of you . . .

Proud, too, of the chance to serve a new generation of young Piedmont citizens.

Our best to you as you move forward to make your own place in our free economy . . . where your own will and effort are the measures of achievement.
